

Free Bylaws For Booster Clubs

For more booster club help and articles visit: <https://www.boostr.co>

Below is a most basic example of company bylaws. This free basic bylaw template can be used as an example for getting started when creating your own booster club by-laws. It is a free company bylaw example that is only partially complete only to give you a sense of what your bylaws should look like. Please add on as many Articles and sections as you need for your club. Keep in mind that your bylaws are a living document and should continue to grow and be added to. We took the time to research real bylaws to create this free bylaw examples for booster clubs so you can be sure that they are reliable.

Title: Bylaws of [Insert Booster club name]

Article I: Name and Location

1.1 The name of the organization shall be [Insert Booster Club Name].

1.2 The locations of club meetings may include the buildings of the [Insert name of school district] as designated by School administration and Club officers.

Article II: Purpose and Structure

2.1 Purpose: This organization is operated for the charitable and educational purposes defined in section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue code. The purpose of this organization includes the raising of funds and purchasing of property and services to be used by students and faculty of [insert name of group supporting]; providing for civic or educational activities and volunteers for such activities, as well as engaging in other charitable civic or educational activities to contribute to the education of the public and the community; and exercising the various rights and powers conferred by [insert state] state law upon nonprofit corporations.

This booster club shall be nonprofit, non-partisan, self-governing, self-supporting, non-commercial, and shall not seek to direct the administrative activities of [Insert school district] nor will it seek to control any of its policies.

The booster club's earnings shall not be distributable to its members, trustees, officers or other private persons nor shall any member, officer, or private individual be entitled to share in the distribution of corporate assets or dissolution of the booster club.

Article III: Membership

3.1 Membership: Any person who is the parent or guardian of a child or children who participate in [ name of group supporting] and who also agreed to these bylaws may hold membership within the booster club.

3.2 Rights and Responsibilities: The rights and responsibilities of the members include: attending meetings and events organized by the booster club, and serving on committees in nominated positions, and in elected offices. Voting members reserve the right to vote for officers and review and approve budgets and amendments to these bylaws.

3.3 Meetings: Annual meetings shall occur during the month of [ insert month] at least once per year. During this annual meeting, officers will be elected. Additional business may be conducted during this meeting or separately at an event sponsored by the organization as determined by the executive board or at the request of members in writing.